

Bernzott Capital Advisors Client Privacy Statement

Regulations require that Bernzott Capital Advisors maintain a privacy policy to ensure that nonpublic client/investor data is subject to adequate controls and security. In connection with this regulation all clients are provided a copy of our Privacy Statement at the time of initial investment. We are also required to redistribute this policy to all clients no less than annually.

We collect nonpublic personal information about client/investors consisting of information provided on account applications or other forms and data about transactions in accounts.

We may retain vendors to help us serve clients (transaction and data processing or mailing services, for example) and we may disclose client information to them in the course of their work for us. We require that they agree in writing to protect that information and limit its use to the business purpose for which we engaged them.

Otherwise, unless required by law, we never disclose client information unless specifically requested to do so (to CPA or attorney, for example) or authorized in writing (for custodian, for example) by the client.

If our relationship the client terminates, we will still adhere to these policies and practices.

Access to client information is restricted to our employees who need it in order to provide service. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to ensure information security.
